Message

I am immensely delighted to know that the General Economics Division (GED) of the Bangladesh Planning Commission is publishing the revised version of the Monitoring and Evaluation Framework of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs).

The first Monitoring and Evaluation Framework of the SDGs was formulated in March 2018 for 108 indicators while baselines were given for 127 indicators. Since then, data domain has witnessed development both in global arena as well as in country context. Moreover, many indicators have been graduated to Tier II, even to Tier I from Tier III.

In addition to this, Bangladesh is going to present its second Voluntary National Review (VNR) to the High-Level Political Forum (HLPF) in July; prepared second Bangladesh SDGs Progress Report and will organize second round of conference on SDGs Implementation Review (SIR) in 2020. Furthermore, Bangladesh is in the process of preparation of the 8th Five Year Plan (8FYP), the development blueprint of the country. As a result, it is the high time to revisit the Monitoring and Evaluation Framework of the SDGs in order to track progress made by the country by using as many indicators as possible with new information available. It will also help in devising the Development Results Framework (DRF) of the 8FYP by integrating SDGs indicators in the DRF.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank GED for preparing the time befitting SDGs monitoring and evaluation framework. I also express my sincere gratitude to the Prime Minister's Office, Bangladesh Bureau of Statistics (BBS), various Ministries/Divisions/Agencies and custodian agencies in Bangladesh for providing their data inputs to GED to come up with preparation of this revised framework.

I hope everyone will be benefitted by using this monitoring and evaluation framework while tracking progress of implementation of SDGs in Bangladesh and help preparation of SDGs performance progress reports.

Message

I am pleased to be informed that the General Economics Division (GED) of the Bangladesh Planning Commission is coming up with the “Revised Monitoring and Evaluation Framework of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs): Bangladesh Perspective” at a time when Bangladesh is in the process of preparation of the second Voluntary National Reviews (VNRs) and second SDGs Progress Report.

The availability of metadata against SDGs indicators has improved since the first SDGs M&E Framework which was published by GED in 2018. In addition, the status of data availability has also witnessed changes while examining the metadata of each indicator thoroughly. As a result, revisiting the framework was needed with a view to keeping the pace of progress tracking and preparation of monitoring reports on SDGs implementation.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the officials of the General Economics Division (GED) for discharging their responsibility towards SDGs mainstreaming, implementation, monitoring, and reporting progressively. I would also like to express my appreciation to all ministries, divisions, agencies and development partners for their technical inputs to make this revisited framework a reality.

I believe this framework will be a useful tool for monitoring the progress of SDGs implementation in the country. I also believe that under the visionary and dynamic leadership of our Hon'ble Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina, the country will again become a leading SDGs achiever in the course of its transformative development journey, the way Bangladesh was globally recognized as 'role model' of MDGs implementation.

Prefatory Note

The “Revised Monitoring and Evaluation Framework of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs): Bangladesh Perspective” is an updated version of the first SDGs M&E Framework that was developed by the General Economics Division (GED) in March 2018 to use for SDGs progress monitoring.

From the perspective of SDGs, a national monitoring and evaluation system will rely on sets of indicators for which benchmark and follow-up data are available. National ownership at all levels of the SDGs is also critical, and national monitoring must respond to national priorities and needs. Keeping this in mind, the SDGs M&E Framework has been revisited and updated by latest data availability accommodating newly generated data against indicators as well as include recalculated data in line with transformed metadata of indicators.

The revisiting work started with considering data availability for 232 indicators (244 in total including repetition). At the time of completion of the Framework, changes have been observed in the Global Indicators Framework. A total of 8 indicators have newly been included, 5 indicators have been deleted, while 35 indicators from the previous list have been refined or replaced. As a result of inclusion, exclusion, refinement and replacement, the number of ‘unique’ indicators now stands at 231. This was the compelling reason that we have to revisit the first SDGs Monitoring and Evaluation Framework. However, total number of indicators now stands at 247 because 8 indicators have been repeated once and 4 indicators have been repeated twice as of Global Indicators Framework released by IAEG-SDGs in 17 April, 2020.

Although revisiting of SDGs Monitoring and Evaluation Framework began with 26 September 2019 version of the list of SDGs indicators suggested by the IAEG-SDGs, the framework also took into account the version released on 17 April 2020. The Framework has been thus rechecked and revised again at the last moment to reflect the changes made in the SDGs indicators. Baseline data has now been provided for 161 indicators, while this revisited SDGs M&E Framework has been developed for 138 indicators out of 247 indicators.

It is impressive that 131 baseline data are taken from national sources for the Framework and rest 30 baselines from international sources, while 105 baselines were collected from national sources in the first SDGs M&E Framework. However, more efforts to be given to generate data for the indicators currently which have no baselines as a continuous course of indicators' improvement.

The National Statistical Office (NSO), Bangladesh Bureau of Statistics (BBS) would not alone be able to generate all data required for the SDGs indicators. Generation of administrative data needs also to be streamlined. Therefore, ministries/divisions/agencies and private data producing agencies should come forward so that data generation rate can be fostered and endorsed by the BBS. In connection to this, there is no alternative to build capacity of all data generating authorities, if the country wishes to become an exemplar of high success in the era of SDGs.

Revisiting Monitoring and Evaluation Framework has been a complicated task in the way of continuously evolving efforts of improvement by the IAEG-SDGs in defining, resetting indicators and that we have to follow. On behalf of GED, I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mr. M. A. Mannan, MP, Honourable Minister for his encouragement, guidance and support in revisiting the SDGs M&E Framework. Principal Coordinator (SDG Affairs) and Prime Minister's Office on SDGs Affairs supported us in preparing this revisited SDGs M&E Framework and deserve our cordial thanks. I would like to express my gratitude to the BBS, all relevant ministries, divisions, agencies and custodian agencies for providing their inputs to GED to make this framework a reality. Lastly, thanks are also due to my GED colleagues and SC₄SDG project experts for their dedication and working as a team to complete the Framework.

The Preparation Process and Acknowledgements

The SDGs M&E Framework has been revised in order to update the data for the indicators and the revisited framework would be used in the Development Results Framework (DRF) of the 8th Five Year Plan, in preparing Voluntary National Review (VNR) 2020 and also to SDGs Progress Report 2020.

The process of updating started with sharing of updated data with all relevant ministries, divisions and data producing agencies to receive data inputs to revisit and update the Framework in October 2019. Upon receiving feedback from the stakeholders, a workshop with Custodian Agencies was organized during 19-21 November 2019 followed by Inter-Ministerial Consultation Workshop during 26-28 November 2019. During the workshops, participants scrutinized each baseline in accordance with the metadata and proposed milestones and targets. Inputs from the workshops then have been incorporated and shared with all relevant ministries, divisions and agencies to get their final nod.

A consultation meeting with all stakeholders was organized again on 19 January 2020 to resolve the disputed issues regarding a couple of baselines. The Revisited SDGs M&E Framework has also been rechecked by the 'Core SDGs Team (CST)' in its meeting held on 22 March 2020. Later on, the baselines have been again matched with the SDGs Data Availability Status Report of BBS for ensuring better alignment between national data and monitoring mechanisms. GED put all of its efforts to get the updated and agreed data on indicators.

The working team on revisiting SDGs M&E Framework acknowledges the contribution of all SDGs Focal Points of relevant ministries, divisions and agencies, officials of BBS, and M&E Focal Points of custodian agencies. Mr. Md Mafidul Islam, Chief, GED; Mr. Md Mahbubul Hoque Patwary, Joint Chief, GED; Mr. Mohd. Monirul Islam, Deputy Secretary (SDGs), PMO and Mr. Md. Alamgir Hossen, Deputy Director (Data Management) and Focal Point Officer, SDG Cell, BBS deserve special thanks for extending their full support to the team.

Thanks are due to Strengthening Institutional Capacity for SDGs Achievement in Bangladesh (SC₄SDG) Project of UNDP and UNEP-PEA for their efforts in organizing all consultations, workshops and meetings. The preparatory team led by Ms. Munira Begum, Deputy Chief, GED and associated by Mr. Md. Mahbubul Alam Siddiquee, Senior Assistant Chief, GED, Mr. Mohammad Zariab Hossain, Senior Assistant Chief, GED, Mr. Shimul Sen, Senior Assistant Chief, GED and Mr. A Z M Saleh, SDG and Monitoring & Evaluation Analyst, SC₄SDG project has completed the Revised SDGs M&E Framework with full compassion and dedication. Sincere gratitude to Dr. Shamsul Alam, Member (Senior Secretary), GED for his continuous guidance, inspiration to the team, and for editing the entire Framework in making this important SDGs publication a reality.

Introduction to the Revised Monitoring & Evaluation Framework

The global indicators framework for Sustainable Development Goals was adopted by the General Assembly on 6 July 2017. However, the proposal was made by the Inter-Agency and Expert Group on SDG Indicators (IAEG-SDGs) and agreed upon at the 48th session of the United Nations Statistical Commission held in March 2017. Since then, IAEG-SDGs is organizing physical and virtual meetings to come up with a complete list of indicators that all countries around the globe can use efficiently in tracking progress of SDGs implementation. In connection to these meetings, a number of changes have been made in the list of SDG indicators that have been approved in the 51st session of the UN Statistical Commission (UNSC) in March 2020. The changes have been proposed in the 2020 Comprehensive Review as well as IAEG-SDG WebEx meetings held between February and April 2020.

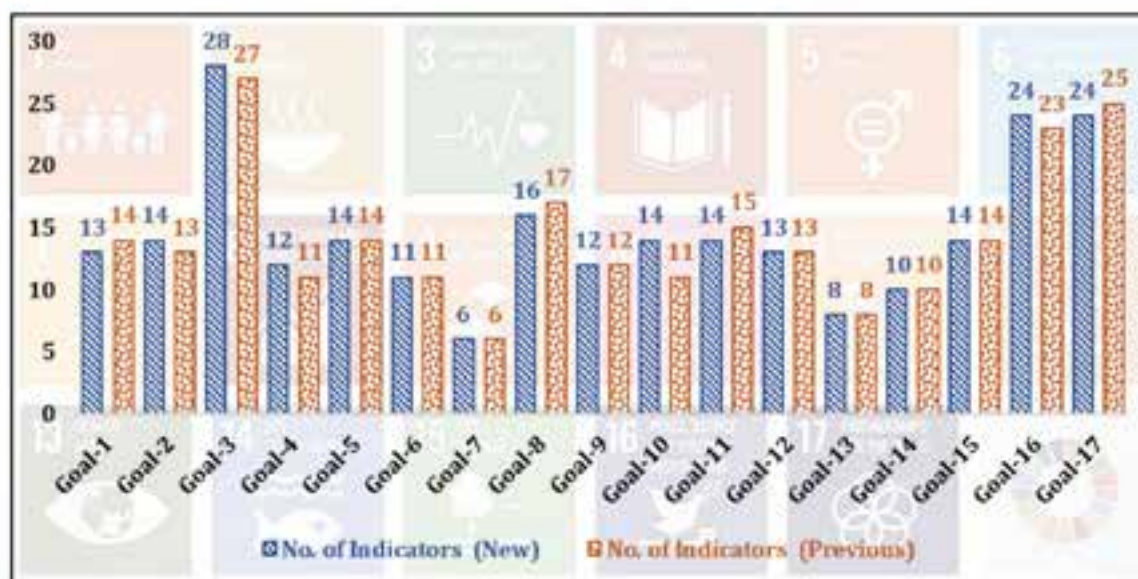

A total of 8 indicators (2.2.3, 3.d.2, 4.1.2, 10.4.2, 10.7.3, 10.7.4, 13.2.2 and 16.3.3) have newly been included in the list, while 5 indicators (1.a.3, 8.9.2, 11.c.1, 13.3.2 and 17.6.1) from the previous list of Global Indicators Framework have been deleted. To make the list more comprehensive and manageable, 35 indicators (1.1.1, 1.a.1, 1.b.1, 2.5.2, 3.5.2, 4.2.1, 4.7.1, 4.c.1, 6.3.1, 7.b.1, 8.3.1, 11.6.1, 11.a.1, 12.3.1, 12.a.1, 12.b.1, 12.c.1, 13.2.1, 13.3.1, 13.a.1, 13.b.1, 14.1.1, 14.2.1, 14.b.1, 15.9.1, 15.a.1, 15.b.1, 16.7.1, 17.3.1, 17.5.1, 17.6.2, 17.7.1, 17.12.1, 17.17.1, 17.18.2) from the previous list have been refined or replaced.

As a result of inclusion, exclusion, refinement and replacement, the number of unique indicators now stands at 231 that was 232 in the earlier version. However, the total number of indicators of the Global Indicators Framework is 247 (previously 244), because 12 indicators have been repeated. A total of 8 indicators have been repeated once (7.b.1/12.a.1, 8.4.1/12.2.1, 8.4.2/12.2.2, 10.3.1/16.b.1, 10.6.1/16.8.1, 13.2.1/13.b.1¹, 15.7.1/15.c.1, 15.a.1/15.b.1) and 4 indicators have been repeated twice (1.5.1/11.5.1/13.1.1, 1.5.3/11.b.1/13.1.2, 1.5.4/11.b.2/13.1.3, 4.7.1/12.8.1/13.3.1). However, no suitable replacement indicator was proposed under Target 11.c.

The General Economics Division (GED) in collaboration with Bangladesh Bureau of Statistics (BBS) and other relevant ministries/divisions/ data producing agencies had produced 'Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) Framework of Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs): Bangladesh Perspective' in March 2018. Since then, data domain has witnessed development both in global arena as well as in country context. Therefore, it is warranted to revisit the SDGs M&E Framework in order to reflect the updated data scenario of the country as well as to review the targets and milestones against each indicator. The revisited and updated monitoring framework of indicators and statistical data will help monitoring progress of SDGs implementation in the country, inform policy makers of the development and help to ensure performance accountability of all stakeholders.

Although revisiting of SDGs Monitoring and Evaluation Framework began with the 26 September 2019 version of the list of SDGs indicators suggested by the IAEG-SDGs, the framework also took into account the latest version released in 17 April 2020. This revisited SDGs M&E Framework has been developed for 138 indicators, while baseline data has been provided for 161 indicators. In the earlier version, baselines were given for 127 indicators and M&E Framework was developed for 108 indicators (Figure 2). A number of baselines were revisited/recalculated in this framework in order to bring into line with the methodology proposed against each indicator of the Global Indicator Framework. In some cases, baselines have been dropped off from the framework those are found not to aligned with the metadata².

² Metadata is "data that provides information about other data". In other words, it is "data about data." Many distinct types of metadata exist, including descriptive metadata, structural metadata, administrative metadata, reference metadata and statistical metadata.

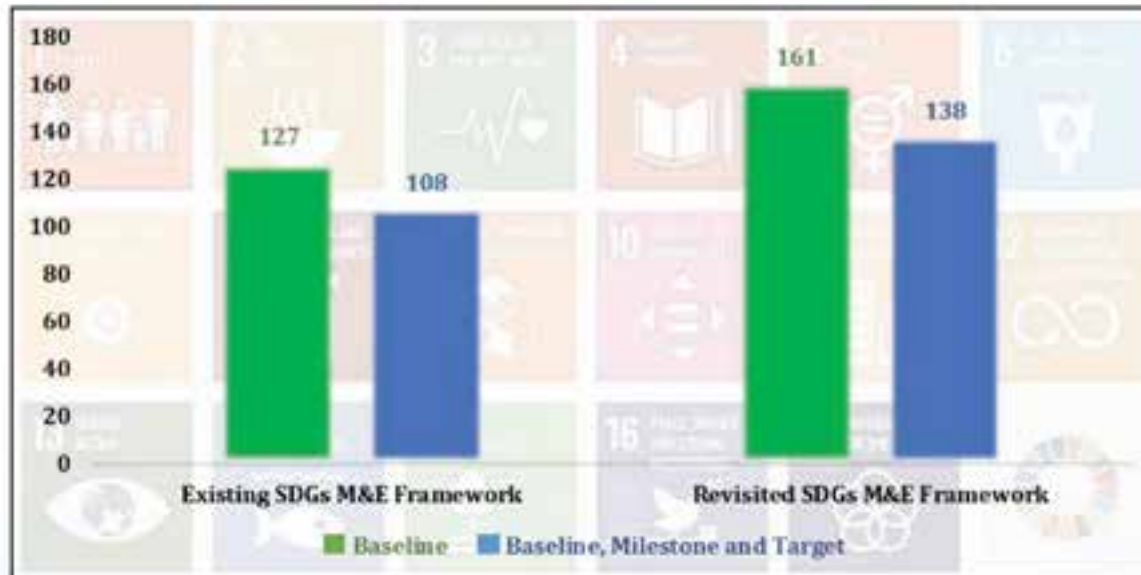

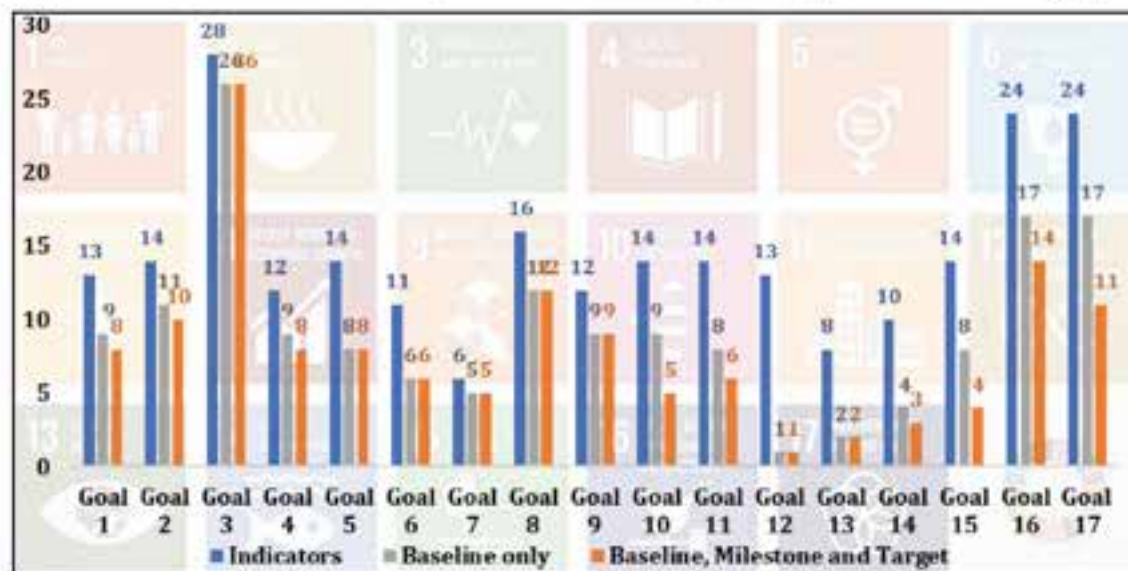

Figure 3 summarizes that Goal 1, 2, 3, 4, 7 and 8 are in good position in terms of availability of baseline figures, while Goal 12, 13, 14 and 15 require special attention. Though not in better position, but Goal 5, 6, 9, 10, 11, 16 and 17 have a good number of baselines based on which progress of SDGs implementation would be possible to monitor. It is to be noted here that 28 global reporting indicators³ were primarily counted in the Framework. However, considering scoring of these indicators as per metadata, these indicators were dropped off from the list. If these scoring had been made available, the number of baselines would have been increased significantly.

³ 1.5.3, 5.6.2, 5.a.2, 5.c.1, 8.b.1, 10.7.2, 11.a.1, 11.b.1, 12.1.1, 12.7.1, 13.1.2, 13.2.1, 13.b.1, 14.2.1, 14.c.1, 15.6.1, 15.8.1, 15.9.1, 16.10.2, 17.2.1, 17.5.1, 17.7.1, 17.11.1, 17.14.1, 17.16.1, 17.18.3, 17.19.1 and 17.19.2

During these years, the Government of Bangladesh has emphasized on data generation as without having credible and quality data, illustration of progress on SDGs implementation would be a challenging job. In connection to this, National Data Coordination Committee (NDCC) has been constituted. The NDCC is headed by Secretary, Statistics and Informatics Division by taking/through the representatives from all data generating agencies/ministries of the government and also representatives from private and CSOs to streamline the data generation system, reducing the duplicity and prioritize the areas of the survey, identify data gaps, ensure the availability of quality data and coordinate among ministries and divisions to make data available for SDGs and monitor other international commitments.

The Government of Bangladesh has launched an online 'SDG Tracker' which is being administered by SDG Cell, BBS backstopping IT support from Aspire to Innovate (a2i) Programme where all the data generating ministries are connected to provide data on the platform. In addition to coordination among the data providing agencies in the National Statistical System (NSS), BBS is also providing technical support and training on metadata in light of their responsibility in data generation. Officially, BBS is the authority to check the authenticity of data provided by the focal points of different ministries/divisions/agencies in the SDG Tracker System. A technical working committee headed by Director General of BBS has been working to review and authenticate the data submitted in the SDG Tracker before publishing. Data generation efforts by the country could be realized from Figure 4. According to Figure 4, baselines of additional 26 indicators for the Revisited SDGs M&E Framework will come from national data sources. Data from national sources have been increased to 131 from 105 in this newer edition of the Framework than that of the previous SDGs M&E Framework. Data from international sources were used for 30 indicators that have been increased by 8 in the Revisited SDGs M&E Framework.

It is apparent that till date baselines for quite a number of indicators could not be set yet. However, there is the scope to consider proxy indicators for those indicators having no baselines. Since there is no indicator now at this moment in Tier 3⁴ at this moment and quite a number of credible and quality data is available in the country, it is the time to explore using possible proxy indicators against the indicators having no baselines, milestones and targets. It may not be that much challenging to set baseline, milestone and targets against the proxy indicators. If this can be done, national monitoring and reporting on SDGs would be more robust and rigorous.

Since the list of global indicators are still evolving, it is quite understandable that this framework will be required to be revisited again when all the indicators will be finalized, and all indicators will graduate to Tier 1⁵ from Tier 2⁶. Until then this framework will be the revisited monitoring tool for the practitioners to track progress of implementation of SDGs made by Bangladesh en route to achievement of the Global Development Agenda 2030. Bangladesh SDGs Progress Report 2020 has been prepared based on this revisited Monitoring and Evaluation Framework of the SDGs.

⁴ Tier 3: No internationally established methodology or standards are yet available for the indicator, but methodology/standards are being (or will be) developed or tested.

⁵ Tier 1: Indicator is conceptually clear, has an internationally established methodology and standards are available, and data are regularly produced by countries for at least 50 per cent of countries and of the population in every region where the indicator is relevant.

⁶ Tier 2: Indicator is conceptually clear, has an internationally established methodology and standards are available, but data are not regularly produced by countries.
